Her Name Is Calla-The Union: I Worship A Golden Sun

One of the best post-rock songs ever. 3 of these guys songs I really, really like, though all of them are good.

Her Name Is Calla-The Union: Recidivist

Favorite parts is probably the second half, which goes to some of my all-time favorite music. Which nowadays is a ton of freaking music that I can't really name exact favorites.

Her Name Is Calla-Condor And River

Another favorite, and the favorite part being the 2nd half of the song this time as well.

Run-D.M.C. vs. Jason Nevins - It's Like That (Jason's Battle Blaster)

CVT Temp wrote:
I mean, we can actually create a mathematical definition for evolution in terms of the evolutionary algorithm and then write code to deal with abstract instances of evolution, which basically equates to mathematical proof that evolution works. All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.
