Fine up to 50000 Rubles for posing a health hazard, fine up to 65000 Rubles for disruption of traffic, 3-5 years of jail for indecent exposure and 200 hours of community service for littering. Additionally, if anyone gets into an accident as a result of such action, you get to pay for the repairs of all damaged vehicles. 10-20 years of additional jail time if anybody dies (unintended killing while performing a dangerous act).

In Liberza, burning the Qur'an, or any religious text/bible for that matter, can be considered hate speech, but depends on context. Most of the time the Liberzan courts and government deems it unnecessary even during protests against religious-related individuals and organizations to burn religious bibles.

Legal, but highly frowned upon. Christmas refused to end its hunt for Lebensraum at the start of November, so we must push the Jolly Menace back to Black Friday.

Killing someone with a firearm negligently:

- didn't know it was loaded
- didn't know to not point it at someone

The chanting is fine, people are allowed to talk. The city burning is life imprisonment in a place with no flammables and aggressive psychological counselling.

A combination of arson and larceny called arceny where you rob a place and burn it to the ground.
