Country is hostile to us? They must want to seize our mint plantations. Foreigner gets sick? Must be the menthol fumes in our air. Need seasoning? A few grams of menthol is always the answer. Need fuel? Menthol is our number one fuel source. Need to repel an invasion? Menthol gas tends to make regular humanoids drop like flies while a Mentholite can go right through the gas cloud like it is regular air.

No idea who you're quoting there, Theixa - the only references to "dinoland" I can find have nothing to do with any of the recent players in this thread.
