Post-rock is one of those weird genres. Even when it's generic as hell, I can't completely dislike it. Though there is quite a lot of post-rock I'm going back to that bores me quite a lot. This song is a pretty standard post-rock song, but I still can enjoy it. It's because the genres about making pretty atmospheric music, so even though someone might do post-rock under the blandest formula possible, there's still usually some redeeming quality with it, in its peacefulness or whatever (The kind of music I love). Even if I wouldn't rate it high at all because of how basic it is.

Immanu El-Under Your Wings I'll Hide

Generic as hell post-rock song title, and generic as hell post-rock song. Used to love this one, because it was when I first was getting into the genre. Now it's just kinda meh.

Vocalist sounds kinda like the Aereogramme vocalist, but more boring, along with the bands music...

Immanu El-Kosmonaut

Think this is the only song I really enjoy by them anymore. Rest seems boring *Is skimming through old bands*

Torches - Rise Against

Personally, I like Rise Against's first two albums. Past that, they became soft and strange. Not the real hardcore punk I like...

Even that songs not as exciting as it used to be.

Eversham-Trees Don't Grow in Old Dead Countries

Most metal on the album, and might be their best
