Farting in an elevator?

Not punishable since farting is ultimately a natural human impulse and it is not something you can consciously prevent most of the time. Definitely something that would get you nasty looks though if you did it regularly, and you would probably find yourself being told to go to the doctor if it persists.

Staging a terrorist attack on a prison, incapacitating or killing all of its guards, and then breaking out every single one of its inmates?

Most people won't really care, but worst case scenario you'd go to trial for assault: up to 2 weeks in penitentiary and up to $5,000 in

Committing all sorts of crimes, war crimes and crimes against humanity then being captured and tried after an enemy invades your country.

Death by firing squad.

Slapping your spouse.

Domestic abuse sentences in our nation vary depending on the nature of the crime but generally you're looking at 1-5 years in prison and a large fine.
