Every now and again I just go full-on black metal. Now's that time.

This band gets classified as post-rock a lot, but I'm going to go with this album being more alternative rock/indie rock, and very, very experimental versions of those genres at that.

I love when I'm trying to figure out where to put an album for favorites ratings and I have like, no idea what genre to even call a band. I don't really care enough so I'm just gonna call it what I said earlier.

Hell, I'm listening to black metal rooted in Romanticism and Naturalism.

Reverend Bizarre - They Used Dark Forces/Teutonic Witch
They Used Dark Forces works as 11 minutes long intro and 2 minutes long outro song, Teutonic Witch being in the middle. Teutonic Witch was number 1 single hit in Finland, and it's 16 minutes long
