Some Other Time - Bill Bruford w/ Towner & Gomez.

Okay, so it's a drum solo, so technically it's just Bruford.

Leave It by Yes; they're some obscure band from the early nineties that I found for less than a dollar at McKay's, and it's easy to see why it was so cheap. They seem to be OK, but there's probably a reason for why I hadn't heard of them until yesterday.

They aren't really obscure, people today just know fuck all about older music.

Actually, "Leave It" isn't even from the 90s. It's from 90215, and that was from the 80s. Yes still isn't obscure, though. Actually, they're one of the most popular prog bands on the planet.

@Cathrit, if you want better Yes albums look at their '70s output.
