"Well now. Peacekeeper, lawbringer, gunslinger... neglected, wronged. Raised an army, had his vengeance. A story told in blood. Certainly not the first time I've heard a story like that. Helped shape a few. But the question arises - what does the gunslinger become then? Once vengeance is had, once the casings are tossed? A fairly effective leadership figure, apparently. And yet he hasn't lost sight of his frontiersman roots... a missing link. Tween civilization and wilderness, savagery and finesse. The sort of man to pave the path for reconstruction. We could use more men like that out here... but ah, that's besides the point. Rebuilding the wastes is not his burden to bear. He has enough on his plate as it stands - as one frontiersman to another, I wish him a storied path. And happy hunting."

"If it isn't King Atlantis himself! Oh wait, must've mixed you up with the other hunk who has his own underwater civilization. Wonder which one of you came up with the idea first!"

Whatever! I haven't exactly heard much good about you and from the looks of things, I don't exactly have much reason to alter my opinion of you upon further inspection. Props to your PR specialists! They did a fantastic job of making you look like an agreeable, tough, gruff man who 'prides himself on honorable conduct'! Oh wait, this part is hilarious! Apparently, you believe that the government should 'always have what's best for the majority! How much did you pay these guys? Don't tell me you wrote this!

In any case, I prefer to reach my own conclusions. Thank you very much!

You claim to despise warmongering and yet, you're more than happy to drop into the a foreign land, mustering up all your martial strength, if the cause is just? Tell me, who exactly dictates whether or not war is necessary? You? Your god? Your harem?

Ugh, are you another one of those adherents of 'family values' or am I mistaken? What are family values to you? Before you answer that question, do note that polyamory is frowned upon.

Don't get me started on your attitude towards immigrants! Oh the horror! Someone who's not a cut and paste version of me and my bloc! Is 'diversity' not in your dictionary or is the prospect of cultivating a hive-mind more preferable to you?

I probably should stop myself. Don't take this personally! There's still a silver lining! You've gained quite a few brownie points simply because you manage to endow mother nature with the respect its due. Finally, someone else that doesn't want to see the world turned into an urban hellhole. I guess you might not be all that bad! Well, I hope so at least." - Ambrosia

Exuberant Superintendent T-1000/2904 Surveillant Clarissa Alanis Star Breyia « La Amoureux Chéri » Millie Taissa Butterfly Mélody Coraline Jolijn Trini Clementine Hollie Samantha Zeta Harumi approached Ambrosia and picked her up gently onto her palm. Her eyes shifted from normally happy to Clarissa-levels of happy, and her pupils dilated a little out of happiness. Happy, happy! Anyway, with Ambrosia safely on her palms, Clarissa started giving her opinion on her. It's the usual trend of "Ahh, I am so very positive of you, as always!" and then she would add on even more, supplementing what Adriana said previously to her, "Well, I heard about your family and all that! I am so happy to meet someone like you, and I am very sure that you are going to lead towards a positive trend and view towards vampires, to other people! You are such a kind and nice person, and please don't think that you are giving the vampires a bad name! You are indeed a very caring person! If anything else, you are giving the vampires a good name and if it works, you are going to help out everyone!" Clarissa would be referencing about how Ambrosia's niceness will bring about positive reinforcement towards the humanity - to stop killing them with a wooden stake or a cross... or some gartic. "Well, I will have to go!" Clarissa said, smiling sweetly, "I have another person below me who I need to talk to!" She then gently put Ambrosia on the ground, "Have a nice day! Hmhmhm! Ohhh, what a lovely day!" And then she came across another robot. Maybe. Perhaps. Her eyes need to refocus on the ground below!

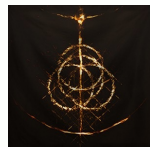

She doesn't really like her, but she still believes that there are still good qualities even on a robot hell-bent on exterminating everything on its path, enslaving the humanity, and raiding an ice-cream truck. At least, Clarissa believes that if given the chance, The Paramount would do such a thing. However, her eyes and her scanners would give her new data: Arms of the Mechanators, Tal'Talen. He- no wait, she... Who is she? Who could she be? The data in me is screaming that she is not someone trustworthy! She killed people! She has massacred in the name of whatever! Clarissa composed herself within 0x0.00024B33E nanoseconds, refreshing her memory bank and going to give an opinion on this person she deemed to be a little... fishy. She simply crouched down, not trying to pick her up or anything of that sort. "Well, I will have to say that I am not exactly fond of you, that is for sure! I don't know, you seem to be that kind of person, you know? I mean... you have killed and massacred! I am not sure if I will ever be close to you. With that said, I will keep myself neutral on you, since, well, this is the first time we met each other, and I think it will be wrong for me to judge too quickly! Maybe you have some soft side inside of you, whatever that might be! No one can be completely evil, there has to be something that you care about! And I, Clarissa, will find out and make you happy!" And just like that, Clarissa would simply slowly walk away from Tal, making sure that she does not step on her, "I will have to go and make my way around now. Err, yes! See you around soon, haha! I might not like you or warm up too much, but please, still, have a nice day!" This would be the very first time Clarissa met someone else from Imperial-Octavia. Maybe it's for the better... maybe it's for the worse. The Octavians CANT be all evil!

An alternate history version of China in which the alliance between the Kuomintang and the Communist Party never broke down, eventually resulting in a federalized, democratic China. Though one of the world's strongest economies and an emerging superpower, China continues to suffer from high rates of income inequality, an overreaching and sometimes corrupt government, and cultural issues that continue to persist despite the efforts of many reformers over the decades. Most factbooks are still an active WIP.
