That you are a fellow monarchist. And you have a moral army, doing their job for the good of all (except the slavers, I guess).

This nation is what happens if I stretch my ideology, until I can't no longer agree with it. Including the Kaiser.

Traditionalist, Identitarian, CHAD, Ultra-Nationalist, Monarchist.

In their religion of Ke'nitāla, deities are acknowledged but not worshiped, as they are considered to be unknowable. Instead focus is put on shamanistic practices and ancestor worship.

Save for their Navy -and an odd variety of varying anti-tank weapons- and a few other (presumably local) designs, the majority of military hardware in their possession is of Russian origin.

They worship pseudo-Cthulhu & take lots of drugs to do this. In return the eldritch gods have given them domain over the seas of the world.

EDIT: @Tierzhenvoa

I'm being purposefully hyperbolic & slightly inverting the actual role of practitioners of Ke'nitāla for entertainment value.

The domain over the seas is in relation to the naval presence mentioned in your factbook being able to intimidate/impress/be welcomed the world over.

The island was originally inhabited by Polynesian colonists, but they disappeared nearly 400 years ago. Some theorize that their disappearance is due to the arrival of European conquistadors bringing germs and advanced weaponry and wiping them out.

Religiously, the Tlerzhen'na almost exclusively practice Ke'nitāla; an ancient religion which combines elements of shamanism, totemism, fetishism, animism, ancestor worship, and polytheism.

They are a mighty coalition of several European, Asian, and African states centered in Russia, and functions under a largely communist economic policy, with exceptions for some locations such as South Korea, Hong Kong, Taiwan, and Alaska, who are allowed to operate under a capitalist market.

The Onigiri Enclave is a highly progressive scientific largely secularist nation welcoming to all (as so long as you aren't a bee or a jaywalker).

Outer colonies of the UST generally provide foodstuffs or ore, while core worlds have stronger industrial capacities. All such commerce is monitored by the Trade Alliance.

They have a population rank of their nation going by ethnicity, which is also in alphabetical order.
The largest ethnic (at least from what I can tell) is Bengalis, who make up over 320 million people.
