U.S.S. UNITED STATES (CVA-58)
"GONE, BUT NOT FORGOTTEN"

Intended as the first of a new class of "supercarriers" for the United States Navy under the administration of President Harry S. Truman. Her design was notorious for lacking an island superstructure and its unconventional deck layout, which would not be seen in the succeeding Forrestal-class.
In 1949, only five days after United States' keel was laid down, she was cancelled by Secretary of Defense Louis A. Johns on as part of a campaign to cut down the naval budget and advance the development of airborne nuclear deterrence via long-range bombers.

They're literally Buhers, the infamous, notorious, and "funny" player that many people mourned. 11/10.

Definitely one of F7's most recognizable regulars, they were far more active back around August-September but plenty of people still remember them, their old flag (the red and black one) was more iconic, though. 8.5/10

You have a nation ten times older than the two-year-old oligarchy Simonia is in. You have an F7 regular. You get 9/10 in fame.
