Noah eats half of the tacos, but even then he couldn't bring the rest home. He is now larger than your mother, and he feels an urge to poop.

George is a Christian who is venerated as a saint in Christianity. According to tradition, he is a soldier in the Roman army. Saint George is a soldier of Cappadocian Greek origin and member of the Praetorian Guard for Roman emperor Diocletian, who was sentenced to death for refusing to recant his Christian faith. He becomes one of the most venerated saints and megalomartyrs in Christianity, and he is especially venerated as a military saint after the Crusades.

In hagiography, as one of the Fourteen Holy Helpers and one of the most prominent military saints, he is immortalized in the legend of Saint George and the Dragon. His memorial, Saint George's Day, is traditionally celebrated on 23 April. England, Ethiopia, Georgia, Catalonia and Aragon in Spain, Moscow in Russia, and several other states, regions, cities, universities, professions and organizations claim George as their patron.

I'd say this nation is about 85-90% representative to my beliefs. About the only difference between my nation and beliefs is that free markets are effective in a select few situations, and the compulsory organ harvesting is kind of screwed up
