Tim Hecker is probably one of the favorites of mine of what I added recently. Pretty awesome ambient drone noise stuff.

I think because I've ran across so much generic death metal is partly why I've generally despised the genre. The generic "Cookie monster" death metal vocals are so boring.

I prefer old school death metal where vocals are harsher than thrash metal vocals but not guttural like modern death metal. Death and Asphyx are good examples.

Autopsy - When Hammer Meets Bone

Strong one for the weakest album of the year.

That one was the only good song on this album. Partially because it had different vocalist.

Autopsy - The Headless Ritual [Instrumental]
