Date: 7/4/1940

Despite the cataclysm in Antarctica, the war in Europe is going well for the allies, even without the USA or USSR helping. The Ruhr, Holstein, Altbayern and eastern Saxony are occupied by UN troops, while Sicily was taken over in January 1940 and much of southern Italy later on. The Japanese, however, are as victorious as they were in the real timeline, with only the addition of Aila's forces to oppose them. The first attempt at taking Berlin is being prepared.

Man enlists with the Danish armed forces, and is diverted to the Rügen campaign. Man falls off the Königsstuhl and dies from his injuries.

New man.
