Should voting be legal, and compulsory, probably the Technological Party, though in any other case I'd imagine local politics to be a more dynamic domain, and possibly abstain.

Socialist Unity or People's Democratic Movement from represented, and Scientific Research Party or Revolutionary Worker's Party from unrepresented.

BN: We use MMP, so choose one party you'd vote for FPTP and one for PR.

PR: Liberal Democratic Party

FPTP: In Harskaitan West and other constituencies where the People's Party is likely or somewhat likely to win, I'd vote for the Party with the best chance to beat them, otherwise the Liberal Democratic Party.

Edit: Your footnote numbers don't match.

If men were angels, no government would be necessary. If angels were to govern men, neither external nor internal controls on government would be necessary. In framing a government which is to be administered by men over men, the great difficulty lies in this: you must first enable the government to control the governed; and the next place, oblige it to control itself.
