Thankfully Supreme Man's multiverse variant kills that version of Ashotu.

Never mind. The Lorax kills off the Western Hemisphere's human population again.

The Catgirl Confederation (not the Republic) uses a recently built orbital bombardment platform, has it orbit Earth, and then fires on the Lorax. The Lorax is yeeted across the world and he lands in the Caspian Sea.

Turns out it wasn't a Supreme Man variant but instead it was Supaidāman who attacked Ashotu.

Supaidāman is on the run and charged with war crimes by the entire globe for his war crimes committed during the Great Multiversal Catalan Man Banana War. He continues to flee and so he heads to his native homeland, Japan, to try and get asylum.

The Lorax and Clorax massacre everyone on the planet they conquer, which they rename Tree World, and rule over the animals and non-tree plants as priests of the trees (trees are an endangered species on this planet).

Ok, I just want to set a few things straight.

1. Bobland is in the algerbil alliance, they were a founding member and thus were fighting in the Catalan War.
2. Just gonna remind everyone about the Squirrel-Gerbil Confederacy, who the capuchins have forgot about despite them being loyal and close allies throughout the war with Paraguay, who recently surrendered, and Catalonia.

Anyways, Alberta-Saskatchewan invites everyone to sign the Treaty of Regina. The first demands come from Basquenland, Andorra, Estonia, and the SG Confederacy.

Basquenland: Historical Basque lands as well as parts of Greenland.

Andorra: The pre-RP Catalonia.

Estonia: Independent Latvia, and Polecat-Lithuania to pay war reparations.

The SG Confederacy: Gibraltar, Andalusia, Malta, and Sicily.

The first one yes Bobland is part of the Algerbil Alliance.

Anyways, Bobland decides to rebuild their island out of garbage from their trashcans and trash on the shorelines. Soon enough, after that garbage smell goes away, their island is back to normal. Just a bit lush on the garbage areas.

Suddenly, a few pockets of an unknown resource got discovered in Antarctica after some of the penguins there decide to waddle around. They realize that it came from an asteroid (I wonder how they figured that out but that's on me) and quickly extract the resources by their...beaks? The Penguin population suddenly explodes after that discovery which would possibly turn into a bit of a battle for their food.
