They heavily subsidize industry, which, somehow, does not directly produce high-levels of corruption in their unrealistic utopia.

They are traditional China.

Recently they added in a new army group.

Their capital is located in the center of the country, and is a hub of light industry. Surprisingly, it is the least populated of their provinces.

AN:

Their capital is located at a river delta, and is split into six parts based on its geography.

The history of Bowa Sekoa before 1820 is like the history of any other Sub Saharan African nation, filled with tribes and wars. But in 1820, a Swahili chief by the name of Kata unified the region and formed an empire which stood until 1882.
