In other words — and this is the rock solid principle on which the whole of the Corporation's Galaxy-wide success is founded — their fundamental design flaws are completely hidden by their superficial design flaws.

So far I've enjoyed the songs used on the Game of Thrones trailers. For season 2 and 3 anyway. I knew the season 2 one before hand, but not season 3. Never saw any season 1 trailers.

They put a negative effort in finding new music. In other words, they go around saying new music sucks, and then go right back listening to old music.

If nothing exists, where did this anger come from?

Which just annoys the hell out of me. I personally think people have no right to bitch about stuff without even putting any effort into it. Same with all this "Video games turn people into murderers" crap, as if they have any idea since they've never freaking touched a video game in their life.
