While about half of this nation's dispatches seems incomplete or still working on it for quite some time including its own wiki page, what I know best about this peculiar one is its unique history, how they got there in the first place, and their evolution. From their map's perspective, it has a world of its own living close to the sea.

In the 30s, America failed to give the Philippines enough resources, causing crop failure and some other things. Motivated by that, the Partido Obrero de las Filipinas was founded, invented after the ideals of the CPUSA.

Humanity got extremely bored of existing and decided to have a nuclear party, now there is the Inkoings.

Rapture City

- In the underwater city, two roles have emerged from the City's ongoing civil war: the City Monitors who defend the peace and the Red Caps who fight against unjust systems. The city's infrastructure is crumbling under its own weight and kinship is snuffed by the paranoia of totalitarianism. Yet the people would be in for a surprise as their virtual overlord have died many years ago as the oppression continues under his name...
- Not an 1-1 exact replica of Bioshock lore and Rapture City. Only the city's atmosphere and setting is maintained.

There seems to be no real consensus on what the AN is, with viewing it as pirate friendly hellhole, other viewing it as a land of opportunity, and others viewing it as a myth. According to ANs factbook, the truth lies somewhere in the middle.

The "Death Angel", Sivv'Nakh, was created by An'Kazar scientists, and was use to destroy An'kaz enemies. It seems to have escaped, though. It may strike again, but against their creators and their successors.

The PAS is a very large Asian-style nation with lots of Soviet influence. It is obvious from first glance that it has a very authoritarian rule, disguised by magnificent and boastful propaganda that most likely is hiding abuse and violation of its citizens and their rights. Or perhaps I'm looking too closely at it.
