If requested, you could face extradition to the home country of the copyright claimant to face whatever fine or punishment awaits you there. Otherwise you'd on average be facing a fine of around K4,000,000 ($200,000) per unit sold.

Technically not a crime, but you'll receive counseling and probably a spank from your mother, but it's not a crime, unless it involves children in the aforementioned videos.

Having "adult play time" in public.

This fits the crime of obscene assault.

Practicing an obscene act in a public place, or open or exposed to the public. The penalty ranges from 1 to 3 years in jail.

At least five years in jail. I'd say the maximum would be maybe 20, depending on the severity. any less, then you get a fine.

If you didn't hurt anybody, maybe just the fine.

If you can prove that didn't mean to, you just get a smaller fine.

And if your evidence is fake, you get the sentence and another ten years with it.
