The entire moon secedes and unites, forming the Lunar Republic.

Meanwhile, the people who made a collision with the moon and Earth develop a space trade and military port and make it revolve around Earth, above Hawaii and Botswana.

Taiwan is a country, Tiananmen Square Protests happened, and free Tibet.

However, Ronald McDonald forgot to add "bomb" after the word time which doesn't reset the world and instead causes time to advance 30 seconds into the future.

The Martians realized time traveling is a very dangerous business and when done incorrectly can cause the user to end up in the past, present or future in a way they never wished.

Lord Veemaa Abelló II the leader of the Catalans proceeds to send soldiers to arrest Hitler in the Catalan Occupation Zone of West Berlin.

Meanwhile, as Carolingian remnants continue to fight against the overwhelming sheer power of the Catalans and the Asuncion Pact which Catalonia now co-leads. Lord Veemaa continues to call for a "world revolution" to establish a "World Without Borders." He calls for regionalists, civilians, and warlords to rise up and take on their overlords, the government, and to join the movement for a "New World Without Borders."

The Catalan Space Force, detecting a massive armada of space vessels heading to Earth, with intelligence that they are heading to stop Catalonia; the Catalan Space Force launches hit-run and strafing attacks against the armada. But they utilize light space vessels to attack the armada's bunched-up units.

However, this proves ineffective in the long-term as the amount of ships the Catalans take out is not enough because reinforcements continuously arrive for the Martian-Catgirl armada that is led by President Chimichanga of the former Burrito Republic.
