Gorgoroth - "Maaneskyggens Slave"

Probably my favorite black metal song at the moment. The second half of the song transcends the physical world...

Since Spotify doesn't want to work anyway, might as well go through stuff I can only go through on YouTube...

Om-On the Mountain at Dawn

21 minute song. 3 song album. The album only totals at 44 minutes long.

Band was interesting until the screaming vocals came in. Might give them more of a try another time, though.

Goes through more Last.FM suggestions

Well, sold on that band.

Ellie Goulding-Burn

Never really cared for her, but she has a cool voice.

You know what? Me finishing going through most everything is pointless. I just add a bunch more stuff anyway because I have nothing to go through so I feel I need more music to go through...

Just added a whole bunch more electronic stuff to go through.

Dirty Three-Ever Since

Pretty boring post-rock.

Oh look, Boards of Canada is on Spotify again, and more so than before.

MORE ELECTRONIC!

Boards of Canada-Dayvan Cowboy

Always loved this song.

Collections of Colonies of Bees-Fun

Songs vaguely interesting, but still pretty meh post-rock.

CHVRCHES-Recover

Another cool singer but not really into their music.

Love them. You should check out their entire debut album, The Bones of What You Believe.

The singer grew on me even more as I listened to the song. But still think musically it is pretty simple synthpop

Sky Ferreira-You're Not the One

Last.FM is giving me weird suggestions. Because I listened to Lorde, Ms Mr, and Crystal Castles...

Joe Farrell - Outback

Interesting (in a very good way) jazz.
