Ah, the classic execution, curb stomping followed by a 9mm through the occipital.

Shooting 24 federal/secret police agents with a STRATOS manufactured Sturmkarabiner 61M, and bayonetting the rest of the stack with a SM-2 40-inch long bayonet that is supposed to be used with the Sturmkarabiner 61M.

Not a crime, as we have no police force; justice is decided upon and enforced by the people. Because of this, this crime would be impossible.

Property damage?

Reprimanded, we don't really have deadlines, you might get yelled at

Executed by firing squad.

Refusal of a woman to "calm down" when instructed by police or her husband.

Alternate, somewhat patriarchal San Diego ruled by narco-cartels through their puppet politicians. Machismo reigns supreme here. It's very much a narco mafia state.

No Punishment. Highly risky though since Merryman children tend to carry knives or guns.

Industrial espionage.

Alternate Bavaria that has emerged from the collapse of unified Germany after Fireball Day aka Doomsday (6 July, 2013) as a "Catholic social republic," a mixture of distributism, parliamentary democracy, and mild social conservatism of the center-right variety.

As a general statement not a crime, though some Provinces have passed laws that make it a crime to publicly distribute religious scripture other than the Holy Bible, in which case -depending on the province- between $500 to $25,000 in fines, and repeated offenses may lead to the confiscation of the publication device.

Legal, but hardly plausible or even possible. General Davis is an orphan and was raised by nuns.
