Cannibal Corpse - Purification By Fire

CVT Temp wrote:

I mean, we can actually create a mathematical definition for evolution in terms of the evolutionary algorithm and then write code to deal with abstract instances of evolution, which basically equates to mathematical proof that evolution works. All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.

What? 90% of what we are posting is modern music. And note that I'm 18, so if you are saying that about what I'm posting, then that doesn't make much sense.

Jesu-Weightless & Horizontal

I had some random dream last night about 1920's Turkish music.....I have absolutely no idea why, especially since I haven't listened to that 1960's and 1970's Turkish music again.....And I'm not sure why my mind is throwing out music that I've never heard before.

Interesting. I listen to Turkish music time to time (I'm turkish). Though, I'm very picky about it.

Youth doesn't have anything to do with these songs, other than that most are actually not old at all.

You're Turkish? Neat.

I don't listen to much Turkish music. About the only Turkish music I know is 60's and 70's Turkish music. I think the 60's and 70's music I grew up on was all Turkish rock music from my dad

Like this, this, and this, all of which I know extremely well, and I forgot how well I knew it until recently. I'm sure there are others if I dig them up.
