Man grabs an ingot of p l a c e h o l d e r i u m and tosses it into the sink.

5 minutes later, Hacune Miku appears in front of the restaurant database, and steals the ingot.

Man, realizing what he just did, commits suicide.

New man (Novus) is currently at the same restaurant and notices the ingot. He manipulates the timeline through the restaurant computer to revive Miku, and then travels through cyberspace to find a sort of spectrometer that he uses to analyze the identity of p l a c e h o l d e r i u m.

Tiny pieces of exploded placeholderium melt in man's injuries, becoming one with him. Man develops God-like superpowers

Many more men creates many parallel universes, as they are the same man multiple times confronted with a changing context. The God-Man rejoices looking at the existential chaos he has just unleashed
