The Indoeuropean languages are a family of mostly european languages that are similar in vocabulary, grammar and have it's origins from the Pontic Steppes of Ukraine/Russia. Such langauges include English, German, French, Latin, Irish, Greek, Russian and serbo-croatian. However other langauges that is also a part of the indoeuropean languages include Persian, Hindi, Armenian and Maltn.

Imagine being in a language family.

The accounts relating to it in Rhanukhan's own factbooks are deliberately vague as the people of Rhanukhan are unaware of many details regarding the island. As such I've established it as a separate nation in order to provide greater insight through its own factbooks.
