Monkey 314's brain was modified to learn the full number that is pi. It is said the monkey succeeded in his role, but was unable to share the details due to having gradually forgotten how to do everything else in the process of learning pi, including how to breathe.

Monkey 314, their name being closest to pi, decides to follow in the footsteps of monkey 315, but has a mental breakdown when they realize that pi is infinitely long.

Monkey 307 decided to break the cycle of monkey's dying, so he sealed himself away in a safe. He lasted about a minute before realizing he forgot to create an oxygen dispenser.

Monkey 300 realizes that thousands of monkeys were killed in several posts at the beginning of the thread, thus explaining the lower post count. Before he could tell anyone of his findings, some stupid Persians tried to invade his city-state and he died in the battle.

Monkey 296 was a spy in the USSR, and was able to sneak into the FBI headquarters in 1961. He was quickly shot down, but he stabbed a computer with his knife.

Unbeknownst to him, he had wiped out Monkey 433.

Monkey 292 heard the legend of monkey 666 and tried to create a 1 to 1 atomic recreation of monkey 666, but was killed by the same monkey who defeated monkey 666 before he could fully finish recreating monkey 666.
