Intended as the first of a new class of "supercarriers" for the United States Navy under the administration of President Harry S. Truman. Her design was notorious for lacking an island superstructure and its unconventional deck layout, which would not be seen in the succeeding Forrestal-class.

In 1949, only five days after United States' keel was laid down, she was cancelled by Secretary of Defense Louis A. Johnson as part of a campaign to cut down the naval budget and advance the development of airborne nuclear deterrence via long-range bombers.

John Curtin, I speak for the people of Australia as their Prime Minister. We seek sympathetic allies in the fight against the hawks of war.

little man think's he's John Curtin (8 January 1885 – 5 July 1945) was an Australian politician who served as the 14th prime minister of Australia from 1941 until his death in 1945. He held office as the leader of the Australian Labor Party (ALP), having been most notable for leading the country through the majority of World War II, including all but the last few weeks of the war in the Pacific. Curtin's leadership skills and personal character were acclaimed by his political contemporaries and he is frequently ranked as one of Australia's greatest prime ministers and political leaders.[1][2][3][4] !!!!
