Running a brothel isn't technically illegal here, but is frowned upon.

Stealing pretzels to give to children, only to steal the pretzels again, and eat them, then bake your own pretzels to give to the bakeries you've stolen from, just to steal back your pretzels that you gave to the bakeries. I call it "The Grand Pretzel Heist"

I'll take this as "stealing" since AN did not post anything new.

Stealing a loaf of bread - if you did it because you are starving, probably the policeman just drives you to a soup kitchen or something. Or let's you spend a night in the cells so you get a decent meal. If it was a prank or something, a small fine.

A laptop? Community service most likely.

A priceless painting? A flogging.

It is not a crime as long as the bride and groom know that the marriages made by that person are not worth more than a party wedding.

Killing wanted criminals (for crimes that would carry the death penalty anyway) without legal permission, like being a cop.

Not a crime. However, one who commits a crime with a fake weapon has an additional crime (and therefore a worse penalty) than one who uses real weapons.
