The earth coalition starts a new tactic, colonising the moon and setting up a hyper-high tech base there and use that to send 550 light speed nukes to the CCA

The island of the Galapagos and the main power of South America controlling the West of South America. Militaristic and authoritarian with a troubled past and an uncertain future with stability at an all time low due to a lost war and unpopular occupiers.

Make Washington, Oregon, and Northern California declare the independent nation of Ecotopia.

They avoid war with the US by claiming to have stationed nuclear weapons in major US cities (nobody knows if this is really true or just a bluff, but the US does not intend to risk it)

After a Ra'ki fighter shot down a Capuchin miner, the Polity immediately declared war on the Ra'ki and immediately sent substantial amounts of military aid to the Catgirl Republic. The two nations are building up to launch a major attack on the Nal'xiso and Ra'ki, but the planned location of the offensive is kept top secret.

The heavy fighting between the Catgirl Republic and the Capuchins versus the Ra'ki and Nal'xiso begins to change sides as the Catgirls having finally built up fresh new divisions of Catgirl clones begin arriving at the front to the Mowlasa Line of defenses. In the chaos that followed a massive concentrated ground, a battle was fought between the two sides, with both sides deploying huge amounts of artillery and aircraft to support their respective nations on the ground. However, utilizing the technological advancements and development made by the Catgirls and the Capuchins, the Catgirls utilize orbital bombardment installations around Mars and large laser cannons built on Titans to absolutely damage logistical facilities utilized by the Martians, causing for them to be unable to fight the battle in the long-term.

Blood and steel are spilled. Hundreds of thousands dead. But the Ra'ki and Nal'xiso forces begin to withdraw. The Catgirls had successfully fended off enemy forces. The other Martian factions stop supporting the other two and decide to not engage with plans to invade the Catgirls.

Peace is signed with the Ra'ki and Nal'xiso with their colonies in the Asteroid Belt being divided up by the Capuchins and Catgirls.

Now the CCA alliance can focus its efforts on the Earth Coalition which is now slowly dividing itself due to turmoil on Earth. The loss of Hawaii from a clique of FBI agents coupling it has caused for some Catgirl expeditionary units on Earth to evacuate some Hawaiian civls to safe facilities within the Asteroid Belt.

French Dos Renames itself to The Greater Dos Empire. Meanwhile, The Irish Cinco (abbreviated TRC) as I seeks to liberate the cat girls of Hawaii from the FBI. They tell them to liberate the cat girls, however they do not. So, TRC begins an invasion of Hawaii, 4000 leprechauns swarm the FBI, sneakily taking their weapons. The FBI did plan for this to happen, so they had a fake base full of weapons that's actually rigged with explosives and when the leprechauns go to steal the weapons, they set off the explosives. This move kills 80% of the Leprechauns, leaving them with only 800. To combat this, TRC sends 690 Minecraft creepers to kill them, this move is very successful causing the FBI to surrender. The cat girls now own Hawaii again.

The Republic of Hawaii is restored and its human government is brought back to continue the rebuilding and development policies of the islands.

The TRC would still stay there for a bit, just in case the FBI would try and do a counterattack
