One Year of Hard Labor

Your citizen manage to flip their vehicle over someone's house, knock over the flag hanging from their balcony and diving into a pool, killing the puppy that was swimming in it, and set the house on fire through gas leak.

Deporting them to that country to face punishment.

Making a parody of a popular song. (Note: That is a not a crime here, but it may be in other nations)

Capital punishment for high-level treason.

Overthrowing the government for 20 years and doing the opposite of what the old regime did before the old government returns.

AAAN: If people besides yourself were irradiated without consent in the process, than you'll get five months in prison for every one of those people. If, however, you didn't exposed unwilling people to radiation, then you could get some serious governmental and private praise for your build.

AN: If it's a wild turtle, then a day in prison. If it's a pet, then you'll have to pay compensation to the owner for any damage dealt and spend up to two weeks in prison. If it's an endangered wild turtle, you could get two months in prison, and if it was injured to the point of needing medical attention, you'd have to pay a fine to the organization tasked with healing it as compensation.

Stabbing someone's livestock.
