Monkey 436 435 went through the oil supply of the republic and then couldn't tell the difference between a small yellow barrel and a banana.

Other countries: "We need to protect and shield the frail minds and bodies of children, think of the children!"
Andronya: "We must raise a generation of Chads that are independent, strong and capable of facing the world head-on."

Monkey 432 tried to read the above post's spelling of "consciousness" and had a fatal stroke. He bequeathed the computer loaded up with the neural pattern of Monkey 433 to Monkey 431.

Monkey 431 gladly accepted 433's coneinescense. It was like having a pet robot that was perfectly functional. But he underestimated 433. 431 had his mind controlled by computer 433 and spread the 433 digital virus to every monkey from 430 to 001. All of the monkeys had their minds controlled and memories wiped. This went on until 433 accidentally hit self destruct, destroying 433 and 431, and releasing every previously-mind-controlled monkey. But the damage had been done, and they remembered nothing.

Monkey 428 discovered the hard way that it was deathly allergic to exposition. The doctor asked it how it found that out, and the monkey died due to internal hemorrhaging three words in.

You were just asked to stop double-posting, said 'ok' and proceeded to triple-post. Monopolizing the thread is extremely rude, and you're doing a LOT of it.
