A grey rain falls on Revachol. The city soaks in it, cold and dripping. Waves hit the concrete breakers. The homeless huddle by the fires behind the fences. There, among the shacks, is your home. Stay. Have a drink. This is somewhere to be. This is all you have, but it's still something. Streets and sodium lights. The sky, the world. You're still alive.

Well If I'm being honest it's really bad if you truly look inside. I wish I could leave this place, but I can't and likely won't be able to ever. This place even though safe generally is just very bad in other aspects.
