Lost access to any space dedicated to military would be the most likely punishment, accompanied by a 2% raise in taxes for the next 10 years.

"that nation would probably be violent" (looks at cosnicu's pacisivism score)
"that nation is right wing" (looks at Cosnicu's form of governance)
"that nation looks like its straight out of a comic book" (Olkay. this one is technically right, but i didnt recognize it at first)
"that nation is a corrupt dictatorship" (looks at Cosnicu's political freedom and integrity scores)
"that nation is scientifically advanced" (finally)

Typically not a crime, but if the politician ends up being harmed by the frog (I don't know if they're allergic or something) there might be a small fine and a short stint at a penitentiary in store for the assaulter.

We haven't discovered automobiles, electricity or crude oil yet. But if a caravan ended up losing one of its wheels or one of its animals died thus causing a traffic jam, there could be grounds for a civil lawsuit if the people behind the caravan could prove that they lost money due to being in the traffic jam.

depending on which building you vandalize

if its the imperial resident the you could get a death sentence(put in front of a firing squad) or 50-90 years in prison and get a 400.000-1.000.000 dollar fine

if its any other government building then you could get 20-40 years in prison and/or fine 200.000-700.000 dollar forcing your religion onto others

It would be being charged with Treason, immediate sentence would be death by firing squad in the most dishonorable way possible by blindfolding the officer, tying them onto the ground with eyes down and being shot from above. MN has strict honor codes regarding the military ignore how detailed it is, if it was an actual Stanislav Petrov and it was a circumstance where a nation that we previously suspected to have fired upon us, but didn't, no charges and it's likely he'll get a shiny medal, if it wasn't... Well, unfortunately.

Your base of operations is raided by combat robots. They don't even use lethal force, they just walk through the hail of bullets without suffering any discernible damage and pump the whole space with tranquilizer gas. You are then booted to Red Bar status and reassigned to another part of the Comintern in order to separate you from your cohorts, thus destroying your pointless underground business (seeing as pet shops do not exist).

Hacking a military bioweapons research facility and deliberately releasing a hyperaggressive but human-harmless virus that targets and eradicates 70% of the vital nitrogen-fixing bacteria in the soil of BN's territory, causing a devastating ecological collapse that eliminates 50% of BN's trees, 80% of BN's wildlife and over 90% of BN's food production within only five weeks.

Dependent on the value and tonnage of foodstuffs in question, the punishment could be as lenient as the mere confiscation of the offending item (such as international air travellers forgetting fresh fruits in a suitcase) or as strict as a maximum of 15 years imprisonment as well as fines equivalent to twice the value of the offending items (such as those involved in large-scale smuggling operations).

Summary defenestration at the conclusion of the massive manhunt. Nobody coerces a Cala in such a way and lives. The dishonor of attacking the Cala's family for personal gain might even cause the use of a certain Mongol punishment involving molten silver and a funnel stuck in the offender's ear...
