Never seen 'em before. Low post counts, so imagine not quit well known. Probably a 4/10, but who am I to rate things?

Judging their post count of over 10,000 and founding date in 2010, AN is incredibly well-known, especially in the General forums.

Bayshire is also extensively well-known, with over 800 posts within a year. They are a goated user, too.

Decently well-known on the F7 circuit. I'd say 6/10.

1/10. I might have seen them once but they only have three posts. Considering how most people get well-known is through the ns forums, and it's not like they're a significant figure in a big region aside from their low post count, yeah...I'll have to give them a very low score. If they keep the posting up, might become well-known, of course.

Of course, they might be an alt of some well-known player, but I'm going on the assumption they're not.

ninja'd twice

9/10. They are well known to both the F7 and gameplay communities, thanks to Brebina and all that stuff. Though they've never been in general and don't seem to roleplay.
