Remix by Justin Broadwick of his own album on a different project of his...that was named Pale Sketches and he said became too electronic for that project, so he made another project and...redid the album in a more electronic way.

This dude is one of those guys who has too many ideas for his own good

Stevie Wonder – Maybe Your Baby

Making a list of all-time favorite songs right now.
This song is definitely going on that list.

Did I seriously say that I may not have gone through as many albums/EP's today as I wanted to, but still managed to rate a lot? I've gone through 10 things today according to Last.FM...And I rated like 4 or 5 others without listening to it again because I just went with the general rating I felt most appropriate.

I think this may have been better without the vocals. I like the original vocals but these are only okay. The other one was remixed into an instrumental.

Pale Sketcher-The Playgrounds Are Empty (Slumber Mix)

I usually hate remix albums, because they seem pointless, but Justin knows how to remix things well.

Well, making that list didn't take long. Now I just need to narrow it down to top 10 and 25 lists.

Fuck Buttons-Sweet Love For Planet Earth

Their first album, which had some screaming in it. Kinda weird and different for an electronic album.

Murray Gold - "The Long Song"

From the soundtrack to the 7th series of Doctor Who Grandiose song. Sorrowful yet beautiful vocals.
