Весна На Улице Карла Юхана-С тобой и без тебя

I'm really liking this. It's a sort of soft, lounge-ish song with some soft electronics and guitar in the background. Female Russian vocals top it off.

This whole album to me feels extremely....I dunno, loungy? It sounds like perfect music to just relax to while having a conversation with someone, working in the garage, or something. I don't know exactly how to put it. And it honestly feels like something my grandpa could enjoy, as well. I remember listening to somewhat similar music with him while just chatting. Probably the most "Loungy" post-rock I've listened to. I definitely hear post-rock in it, but it just seems to be done in a different way to feel more like music to relax to. Not that other forms of post-rock can't be good for that either, though.
