I mean, we can actually create a mathematical definition for evolution in terms of the evolutionary algorithm and then write code to deal with abstract instances of evolution, which basically equates to mathematical proof that evolution works. All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.

Was, yeah.

I would give it like a 6...

Deerhoof-Zero Seconds Pause

I still think this may be one of, if not my favorite Deerhoof album. It seems like heir most experimental and I just enjoy it quite a bit.

I was going to try Rave Tapes, but I'm guessing it's not worth it since I'm not even much of a Mogwai fan anyways.

Not really, to be honest. The best song is still the first song they released. Had high hopes for it from that but it disappointed.

I need to re-listen through some Mogwai to figure out my final opinion on Mogwai, because there's only a select few songs I remember well.

Batcat is one of their greatest, and most metal songs.

Think I'll give that Deerhoof album an 8.5. Maybe an 8.3 because for some reason an 8.5 feels too high but an 8 feels too low.
