I've listened to Sabaton's Heroes something like 6 times today.

To Hell and Back, Stand and Bite and Night Witches are my favorites.

The way my brain works, an album would get very boring to me after listening to it 6 times in one day. I think this kind of thought process explains a lot related to how I look at music.

Yeah, once I listened to Megadeth's Rust in Peace 6 times in a row. In a way it didn't get boring but I really wanted to listen to something else

I feel like if I listened to an album too many times that I enjoy in a short period of time, it would devalue it for me because I listened to it way too much in a short period of time. Maybe only temporarily, but still.

This is why with most of the albums I've listened to this year, and in general, I've only honestly listened to them a couple of times, if not only once. There's only maybe 2 albums of 2014 so far I've listened to more than once. So far, anyway.
