After winning WW1 they got really liberal, while the south Germans they beat got butthurt and nazified. NGR sort of took on a similar role to historical France, except they don't seem to have spiraled into incredibly stupid demilitarization to the same extent. After winning WW2 (which was started by a re-unified South Germany and some other assholes) they became the sole power in mainland Europe. The British Empire kept it's grip on the rest of the world, except America, which also went ... Well, full America and got hyper-powerful. This lead to an awesome three way coldwar that would make a great movie.

The fact that they really love large numbers, and also that I have learned the name of one kind of number, I guess!

Octovegintillion, which is  $10^{87}$  on the long scale.

Captcha stomped on by Valentijn, then lasered by Clarissa, snapped out of existence by Gwen, only to be brought back by Jolyn to shoot it 16 times.

The Empire is an autocratic nation not favoring the hereditary system, with the Emperor as the position of head of state and wields absolute power over his nation (her if an Empress is in power).

At first I though you were related to Neu Nederland but i think that's just a template i was unfamiliar with

But regarding the nation itself;

- * If only they had a North American holding they'd be on ever major continent
- * They speak Latin well into the 19th century
- * Their sort of a loose confederation of state with nation maintain their own security forces and donating part of them to the central government
