Up to 30 years in prison or up to 50 years to life if it's a plane. Hijacking vehicles you know to contain a pregnant woman are punishable by death if there is any loss of unborn life and by a prison sentence of 40 years to life or 50 years to life otherwise.

Depends on whether the man possessed a history of violent behavior and if he was previously imprisoned, ranging from execution for the officer to administrative leave for a couple of months and a likely reassignment to a position where the officer won't be using firearms. The Lakan Miliz are well known for their batshit insane brutality for a good reason...

The accident itself doesn't determine punishment, it only determines financial compensation (compensation to help the victims because deterrence, rehabilitation and fitting the moral severity of the crime, commonly understood roles of justice, are not based on chance events).

They would be charged for drunk driving and sentenced to one to five years imprisonment.

Not really a crime considering public nudity is legal, but if its dirty then that could be considered causing a public health hazard which will net you a fine and maybe a beating.
