Thanks! Those were all very good. I especially liked Sleepmakeswaves - Keep Your Splendid Silent Sun, and plan on listening to them in the future.

Time Will Remember Us-Epic Score

This is Epic Score. It is actually not that bad, as long as you like piano intros. Like me.

I like piano intro's or pure piano songs, along with violin too, so yeah....And I liked that Epic Score song.

For sleepmakeswaves, I recommend this, this, this, and this. The last one my favorite part is the outro.....which is like a whole 2 minutes...The 1st one has about a minute of an ambient intro, then an epic transition into being upbeat. Same with the 2nd one, but it has a shorter intro.

As you can see, I have a love for instrumental music. I tend to find instrumental music better than music with singing, because too often singing ruins songs for me. BUT, my favorite band has singing, so yeah. Which I haven't even showed you yet, and it's Post-Rock, which is surprising.

Sleepmakeswaves-To You They Are Birds, To Me They Are Voices In The Forest

Post-Rock bands seem to have some of the greatest, and longest song names.
