"Trance\(?\)" by Sound System 009, I believe.

...or is the song title "Dreamscape"?

I honestly think Arnór Dan Arnarson is one of my all-time favorite vocalists. He manages to pull off mellow extremely well and uniquely, and pulls off heavier vocals very well as well.

If anyone would like any music to listen to, like just a random sample, and hopefully a great, new experience, I suggest you visit my region, and listen to some of the stuff I post on the RMB. Thanks!

everyone knows that quote, "I know not what weapons World War Three will be fought, but World War Four will be fought with sticks and stones," but in a way it's optimistic and inspiring because it suggests that even after destroying civilization and returning to the stone age we'll still be sufficiently globalized and bellicose to have another world war right then and there

I mean, we can actually create a mathematical definition for evolution in terms of the evolutionary algorithm and then write code to deal with abstract instances of evolution, which basically equates to mathematical proof that evolution works. All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.
