This is the strangest and most intriguing historical fascination I've ever come across so far. Can I ask why Byzantine specifically?

(In my PoV)

- Roman Empire, Hellenised Edition
- Queen of Cities : Constantinople
- West meets East cultural type + Strategic location
- Illustrious of Orthodox Christianity (Chants, Mosaics)
- A great power in Medieval Age, their request for a military aid unintentionally start the First Crusade
- Master of diplomacy, influence (Eastern Europe and Balkan region has some essences of their culture and religion) and defence (Multilayers Theodosian Wall, Lighthouse warning system, Greek fire, Military-Government Theme system)
- To be resilient and face the problems when things seems dire : Justinian & Theodora (Nika riot), Belisarius (Competent, loyal general), Heraclius (Fought with and beat the eternal rival : Persia (Sassanid), Basil the Bulgarslayer (Look at that title), Alexios Komnenos (Restoration of territory), etc.
- "Rome begin with a city, ends with a city"

- To fight until the last moment : Constantine XI
- The End of the Old, The Beginning of the New (Fleeing scholars and artists into Italy, turning Medieval into Renaissance period)
- etc. I will stop for now.

TLDR : It is the continuation of Roman empire to me and it has huge influences in the history.
