Why do I seem to be the one that changes it to the next page so often?

Or perfect wake up timing.

Blackfield-Cloudy Now

In a violent place we can call our country.
There's a mixed up man.
And I guess that's me.
The suns in the sky but the storm never seems to end.
It's a place of sorrow
But we call it a home.~

We are a fucked up generation~

This songs written by an Israeli I think and sang by the singer of Porcupine Tree.

It's interesting that I pay attention to a lot of the lyrics from Blackfield even though they aren't my favorite band by far. But my favorite bands I have no idea what the lyrics are.

Blackfield-Pain

While I'm melting in the rain. Deep in pain~

All my friends now try to save me.
What a joke.

Blackfield-Some Day

Some day, you will find a better place to stay. You will never need to feel this way again~

This entire song works really well for one of my RP characters if you replace 1 word.

No one cares about that fucking pretty face you have. It means nothing much this life. So find the highest cliff and dive~

While the children played with joy, you were the one they would avoid~

You had no place in side your parents world~

You were falling like the leaves from an old and dieing tree~

You went to school but the teachers made you feel a fool~

Blackfield-End of the World

I love the lyrics in this one

Show Spoiler

It's the end of the world~

It's a prison for dreams and for hopes, but still we believe there is God~

In your room doing nothing but staring at flickering screens~ (This one fits for me)

We're an accident called human beings~

So many lives turned to salts~

We are hopeless and slaves to our fears~

Tell the angels we're here. Waiting below for a dream. Here in the garden of sin~

The National-Sorrow

Sorrow found me when I was young~

Sorrow waited. Sorrow won~

Sorrow put me on the pills~

You're excused.

Add this song to your list too. And if you have any gothic/black/death/doom suggestions for me, feel free to mention it.

Uhhh....How much of Dir en Grey have you heard?

I might be able to give some Doom suggestions if I thought about it more thoroughly.

Stolen Babies-So Close

I haven't really listened to them yet, but Deafheaven is black metal mixed with things like post-metal and I think their most recent post-rock more than post-metal, but they might be worth you giving a try to. At least their first album. Though I think their new one is the most highly praised I'm just not sure if you'd like it or not.

Wikipedia says Neurosis has some doom metal but I looked through all of their albums on there and none said it was doom metal.....I haven't listened to them yet so I can't really pick out specifics for you. There's a lot of sludge metal in their music apparently though.

The majority of my metal bands seem to either be post-metal or sludge metal for some reason ☐ Though a lot I haven't gone through yet. I didn't even specifically search out those kinds of bands, either.

I can maybe try sharing various other things with you later, though, but at least I gave you some possible options.
