Mina Sezlet cancels Man's debt. One of Finnegan's spies hears about that, and decides to try to annul this cancellation and take over Mina's nation, citing a false claim that she owes $17,594,204,260.33 to Finnegan's government. This leads to an armed conflict in the mountains around Mina's lab.

The result, of course, is an overwhelming victory for Mina's troops, who lose only 21 people compared to about 56,000 for Finnegan's army. Not least of the reasons for this is an intervention by Aila and her team, who blast the invaders with specialized weapons on her spaceship. In addition, the propaganda network supporting Finnegan's legitimacy is severely damaged through cyberattacks and computer virus networks.

No final treaty is signed, but Mina hacks Finnegan's bank accounts during the war and steals $17,594,204,260.33 from him. She patches all the security flaws afterwards, to make it seem like a glitch.

Random person in the Man empire's capital: Is this the beginning of the end for Finnegan's reign?

Ultra Man is still alive, however.

Aila: "Looks like it's a problem that my spaceship can solve..."

Aila's team invites the Flat Earther leaders to an international policy meeting, but it ends up being a ruse and Aila pilots the spaceship all the way around Earth. This somehow convinces most of them that Earth isn't flat, and they abandon their followers in favor of science.
