Easy and simple; Militarist societies, like what Ms. Shortstar is trying to do here, always end up collapsing... be it by an invasion (Apparently humans are called 'twolegs' there?) or because someone backstabbed someone because they want that sweet, sweet drug that is power. Though I'll say that I find it disgusting that she is putting six month old individuals into military service which I personally, again, find abhorrent. I am surprised how the population isn't rebelling, as it breaks the 'warrior code'. Overall, negative."

The Federal Republic of New Spiedska

Many years ago, atom bombs flew across the Earth like metallic, deadly birds that would bring plague and destruction all over the globe. A nation that has historically stood in the face of adversity, New Spiedska finds herself re-born; However, to her dismay, her longtime sister-in-arms, the United States of America, suffered a much worse fate under the tides of anarchy and balkanization. Despite the loss of her ally, she will not falter; for she will ensure Liberty for All.

@realAmandaMiller

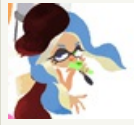

I have seen wackjobs of all sizes, genders and personalities ever since I entered this godforsaken site. But now, I can gladly say that, from the bottom of my heart, Ms. Masanate is the leader I share the most in common with. Crazy, huh? Well, I am amazed too. She clearly presents great knowledge in the field of politics; something that is, unfortunately, very rare from what I've seen. I really do hope her tenure plays out like how it's doing right now, you know? Fomenting peace instead of war, working to achieve stability in Ahkara's region, pushing for the rights of women and minorities, I could go on... it is disheartening she is against abortion, as, in my opinion, that fundamentally contradicts her belief in women's rights. Nonetheless, what's my opinion? Overwhelmingly positive.

Amanda K. Miller

@realAmandaMiller

Listen. I'm gonna say it, right off the bat: My opinion on the self-proclaimed 'Paramount' is overwhelmingly negative. Why? Well, it's really simple; He is your generic, run of the mill dictator that has unreasonable hate for civilized ideals. As such, he is a barbarian, no matter what his grandiose self-pleasuring fantasies tell him. Honestly, I am eagerly waiting until the flawed concept of 'many people in a single body ruling a gigantic nation' inevitably falls apart in the form of the Paramount's pitiful empire imploding. When that day comes, because it will come, I will sit on the beach checking my phone and seeing the countless videos of ships getting blown up. And I will laugh very much.

"A man who is blinded by his hubris will never be able to improve themselves a human beings no matter how imperfect they are, and you still rely on the old ideas of aristocracy that would die with the French Revolution. I no doubt am innocent in these regards, and I'm not even close to disgusted. I cooperate with the worst people imaginable, infact. But historical context notwithstanding, you will not survive long unless you either adapt your society to better itself, or make yourself personally willing to do whatever it takes to solidify your power, no matter the cost. And if your power goes, do all you can to avenge it personally. That is my advice."
~the Boss.

Current year: 2000.

Since 1985, Passione has been one of the most powerful mafia syndicates and organized crime forces in Italy, possibly the world, despite having as little a 750 members, most of them gifted with extraordinary superpowers.

(This nation mainly relies on lore from the anime/manga series JoJo's Bizarre Adventure, specifically Part 5, Golden Wind. It also uses lore developed in the non-canon light novels Purple Haze Feedback and Golden Heart, Golden Ring, as well as the unrelated anime Black Lagoon. This also contains diverged lore, specifically that everyone can see and interact with stans, Giorno Giovanna never existed, and that Sorbet & Gelato never died nor investigated the boss due to conceded demands.)

"I share similar views with him regarding privacy and the past but I have very different ends to him. I want to achieve perfect death by plunging the world into nuclear fire to drag humanity along with me to oblivion and obscurity. I'm not sure to what end he is trying to achieve by hiding his identity and killing people who know him but he is to be admired for his repudiation of the past if nothing else."

The Avant-Gardist State of Patagonia ~~~ Gauchos and Mapuches, orgies and parties, avant-garde art, futurism, syndicalism, the New Man, general strikes, the glorification of violence, spiritual nationalism, esoteric occultism, CIA spooks, Spartanian homosexuality, public sodomy, and more

Triomphe du Surréalisme (1968)

- There are many things said about Patagonia but few actually know what goes on behind the Andes mountains. Tales of human depravation and man's inner darkest self run wild. A place where avant-garde culture flourish and the artist don't fear the censor. Where all live bold and free under the gaze of the Patron. Yet all dreams will come to an end soon...

"I have great respect for leaders in [Kaiser Friedrich V's] case; those that do their best to fulfill their responsibilities of leadership well in spite of unfavourable political odds- in this case, when the interests of the common man and the interests of the hereditary ruling class in how the public good should be maximized clash, especially so in a constitutional republic like [the Empire of] Germany."
