Seeing the rapidly decaying turn of events in T107934, time flow in the area affected, is subjected to temporary freezing, by order of the SPRC's Temporal Entity Containment Division, just as Man was about to enter the maw of the store owner-turned cosmic horror. A task force is sent to the timeline in question to ascertain the damage and reverse what had transpired, while the Comission investigates what was behind the store owner's sudden transformation. The currently most popular suspect being a likely malevolent Extraspatial Force.

Our new man, named Hector (Formal name: Man #806245), is a 24 year old graduate in T569832.

One day, Hector is driving back from work when he sees something crash on the side of the road. He gets out to survey it and sees that it is a flying saucer with a injured, gooey, green alien inside.

TEXAS - goodbye, everyone :)

Charles Fortworth Roberts III, now sentenced to 5 years in prison, waits patiently for his eventual release, taking good care not to show any bad behavior in his time in the clink, and soon enough, five years have passed by, and his release schedule is due to take place that day. What transpired after his release, and what became of his family is a complete mystery.

Charles, in a sort of strange twist, seemed to suddenly snap out of whatever psychotic state he had been in. After much convincing, and a requested polygraph test, Charles is now eligible for release, with the deadline set for 4 days after his test.
