You will never find a better melodic black metal album than The Somberlain

Have you ever listened to Triptykon? I can't really remember. I know you listened to Celtic Frost, but I didn't know if you listened to the singer of Celtic Frost's most recent band or not. This dark and gloomy metal seems to be the type of metal I like....

Edit: Triptykon-Shatter

"Buffalo Soldier" - Bob Marley

Catchy doesn't always=good in my opinion. Some of the songs I hate the most are catchy, like the Fun. song "We Are Young". I hate that song BECAUSE it's so damn catchy and the song sucks.

AND HOT DOES NOT MEAN YOU SHOULD LISTEN TO THE MUSIC! ☐
Music is about the music, not the people in it. That's part of what I thinks wrong with the music industry these days. People like Justin Bieber are popular because all the girls drool over him, and they suddenly love his music because of it. Not all of the fans, obviously, but I wouldn't be surprised if a large chunk of them all. I really find it annoying these artists who are popular for their 'sex appeal', and not for their real talent (which is usually non-existent in my opinion anyway). It's just...bah.

Porcupine Tree-The Incident.

I was being silly..... I don't actually listen to stuff based on the looks of artists. It was a joke. ☐
