"have worked with her opponents in the past"
What? Do you know who her opponents are? Also, how? Like do you mean the ideas her opponents stand for or her opponents themselves?
If you're talking about her opponents themselves, you realize Reaper Squadron isn't in your universe right? So like, how would you have worked with them directly?

hint: her opponent is a government that she rebelled against because of their shady actions and crimes against humanity.

Right... Who are we talking about again? Oh, yeah. Nasir, the leader of the Holy Empire of Alpistan, or Caliph, that's how those Muslims called him right? Well, I don't really have much information regarding him as a person, but from what I've heard, he's more than just capable as a leader. I don't support him when ideologies are taken into consideration, I think you understand my stance on authoritarian regimes, but his recent efforts put into negotiations with long-time rivals is something that I can approve of.

Right. Well let's see, Lev Rowell. Progressive, democrat, holds civil rights above all else, a well-cultured president. What's not to like? I hope I will be able to have high tea at the Spindle in New Georgia City with him at some point. Our debates will be legendary.

"My biggest honor and appreciation for your compliment, and of course, hopefully we can meet each other face in face sometimes. Speaking of which... It seems like we have quite a lot of similarity? We both have experience in the field of diplomacy and foreign policy, and we both are supporter of socialism. Quite a coincidence, I must say."

To: Storm and Crown SC

"Let's see... You're an emperor, an absolute monarch of the state, and you're promising for expanding the sphere of influence of your empire... Right. Not to be offensive, but that sounds awfully like some sort of imperialism in my opinion. It's understandable, however, since you have the legacy of the royal family to consider, and you seems to be resorting to peaceful option instead of waging war and sparking conflicts... Yeah, I think I'll just let it slip. My best wish for you and your regime."

Lissy: Mr. Lev Rowell, hmmm...he seems like decent folk, at the very least.

Hilda: Just kinda seems like a pretty good, well meaning leader. Which is suspicious. He's got skeletons in his closet, Liss...we need only to find them.

Lissy: Is that what you want to do today?

Hilda: I dunno. I could definitely nitpick if I tried, but he seems alright. A universal basic income seems pretty...uh...basic to me, and apparently it did to this guy too.

Lissy: UBI is mostly just a bandage over the failure of capitalism and stuff the mortals try in general. But I respect the drive, at least. But I have the same question for him as I do for all leaders, especially the better ones, who don't plan on occupying their position for the rest of time. How do you plan to protect your legacy? It's such a...human...er, relatively speaking...problem to have, is it not? Well. Not human in your case, per se, but...one who participates in a democracy, as far as I can tell. Do correct me if I'm wrong. Perhaps yours is a more enlightened world, but pardon me for asking regardless...if a successor tries to undo your work, will you stand by? And simply be civil? Or will you endeavor to...hmmm...do something about it, perhaps...?

Hilda: ...Okay, is no one gonna address the fact that he seems to be a Pokémon?
