1616 is the emergency number and 1205 calls the minor fire department. The minimum requirements to call is a Nokia 6110 or better. 1911, 1112, and 1999 redirect to 1616. 911, 112, and 999 do not redirect to 1616 - Though 112 does redirect to 1205.

YouTube moderation is something..... I think the moderation on this video hosting site is the worst. They can ban a channel for innocuous content, but they let really awful stuff through. I think Google doesn't place the proper importance on comprehensive moderation because it takes less effort to produce such content and there is demand. Spending money to track every step is against the laws of many countries, and no one wants to allocate a bunch of money to maintain a large moderator department if it ends up being useless as well.
